

OCEANWATCH AUSTRALIA

TIDE TO TABLE
RESTORING AQUATIC HABITAT

TIDE TO TABLE

Hunter River Connectivity Tour

Connecting healthy catchments to healthy seafood

Tuesday 2nd December 2008
10:00am – 4:00pm

- Cruise the Hunter River to learn about fish habitat projects, sustainable seafood harvesting and catchment management
- Hear about the local seafood industry
- Discover the Indigenous, industrial and environmental history of the area
- Consider how climate change will affect the region

Complimentary lunch and River Cruise provided by OceanWatch Australia

Coach tour to the Fisherman's Co-op and Iron Bark Creek floodgates.

Followed by a boat cruise from Raymond Terrace
to Lee Wharf.

Australian Government

NSW DEPARTMENT OF PRIMARY INDUSTRIES

Journey

10:00 – Meet at Lee Wharf, Lee Wharf Rd.
Parking off Honeysuckle Dr, Newcastle.

10:30 – Bus to Fishermans Cooperative to see fresh product as it comes off the boat.

11:15 – Observe and discuss the Floodgates at Iron Bark Creek with input from fishers and floodgate managers.

12:00 – Board a Nova cruise boat at Raymond Terrace.

1:00 – See a prawn trawler demonstration with Lunch provided on board.

1:30 – Cruise through Hexham to discuss the Indigenous, industrial and environmental history of the land and the changes to the seafood industry.

2:00 – Cruise down the Northern Arm of the Hunter River.

3:00 – View Walsh Point and sail up the Southern Arm of the river to the Coal Loader and Industrial Area.
Listen to commentary about industrial foreshore management.

4:00 – Disembark at Lee Wharf.

Please RSVP by:
November 25 – 2008

OceanWatch Australia
PH: 02 9660 2262

or bookings@oceanwatch.org.au