

Community Engagement

Tide to Table is gaining a high level of public perception through attendance at community events and involvement in local activities. Tide to Table officers are frequently invited to display educational material or provide presentations on fish habitat issues.

Public events that Tide to Table staff attended include:

- Seafood festivals in Hervey Bay and Tin Can Bay
- Multicultural festival in Bundaberg
- Whale festival in Hervey Bay
- Women Industry Network Seafood Community national workshop
- Waves of Change – State Coastal Conference 2009
- Our Dugong Yuwang'kan celebration
- LMAC (Local Marine Advisory Committee) meetings
- Mangrove Watch workshops and monitoring program at Burnett River and Coonarr Creek
- World Wetland Day celebrations at Baldwin Swamp

